

First impressions really count and with its steeply angled windscreen and cleverly styled lines the Astra TwinTop doesn't fail to deliver. Once behind the wheel whether taking to the road as a four-seater convertible, or as a coupé – thanks to its ingenious three-piece folding steel roof – the lasting impression is of comfort combined with stylish design. The Exclusiv Black special edition takes things even further, with charcoal leather seat facings, air conditioning and 18-inch alloy wheels that can't fail to catch the eye. On the move, engage the Sport switch and you'll discover a driving experience to match your every mood. Yet all this superior specification and style comes at a surprisingly affordable price – somehow, we just knew you'd be impressed.
